

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. RULES AND REGULATIONS

Section I—TRUSTEES

ARTICLE 1. The officers of the Board shall be a President. Secretary, and Treasurer, a Committee on the Library, and a Committee on Accounts, who shall be elected annually by ballot from the Board at the first regular meeting succeeding the annual town meeting in March.

ART. 2. Vacancies in any office, from any cause, may be filled at any regular or special meeting, notice to that effect having been given one week previously. In the absence of any officer, a substitute may be appointed, pro tempore.

ART. 3. The Secretary of the Board shall record all proceedings of the Board, and keep their records and files.

ART. 4. The Treasurer shall give bonds to the town of Andover, in such sum and with such sureties as the Board may approve, for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and to account for all such sums as may come into his hands belonging to the Memorial Hall; he shall draw from the town treasury the interest money and any other money that may be due from the town, and shall pay therefrom such bills as are approved by the Board; shall, under the direction of the Board, the property under the care of the Trustees suitably insured; shall settle with the Librarian, quarterly, for all fines and other moneys received by him; shall keep account of all receipts and expenditures of the Board; shall present to the Board at their regular meeting in January, annually, a report of the receipts and expenditures of the year ending on the thirty-first day of December previous, and of the state of the Treasury, audited by the Committee on Accounts, and shall make special reports thereof, when required by the Board.

ART. 5. The Committee on the Library shall recommend books to be purchased for the Library; shall purchase all books authorized by the Board; shall cause the books to be rebound when necessary; shall furnish proper books and forms for the Librarian, and shall annually examine the Library and report to the Board, at the regular meeting in January, its existing condition, a list of books lost during the year, and such other facts as should be reported to the Town. They shall, also, under the direction of the Board, have charge of the Memorial building and grounds, shall provide the rooms in the building with proper fixtures and furniture, and make arrangements for suitably lighting and warming the rooms; shall recommend, and, under the direction of the Board, cause to be procured, newspapers and periodicals for the Reading-room, and cause such as are worthy of preservation to be bound and deposited in the Library; and, generally, shall see that the regulations of the Board in relation to the Library and Reading-room are duly observed.

ART. 6. The Committee on Accounts shall annually audit the Treasurer's accounts and present the same to the Town Auditors for adjustment.

They shall employ such means as they deem best to obtain memorials of the war, works of art, and other objects of interest to be placed in the Memorial Room; also, donations of money and books for the increase of the Library; and shall pay all money thus received to the Treasurer of the Board, to be by him passed to the credit of the Memorial Hall, and appropriated at the order of the Board, unless otherwise specified by the donors.

- ART. 7. No payment of money shall be made except by a vote of the Board, or by the written approval of a majority of the Library Committee, subject to the subsequent ratification of the Board. All orders to draw money from the Town Treasurer must be signed by the President and Treasurer of the Board.
- ART. 8. In the month of January, annually, a report of the Trustees to the Town shall be prepared by a Committee, and when approved by the Board and signed by the President and Secretary, shall be entered on the records and delivered to the Selectmen.
- ART. 9. The regular meetings of the Board shall be held on the second Tuesday of each month—except August—but the Secretary may, at his discretion, postpone any regular meeting, except the meeting for the election of officers, by giving due notice thereof. Special meetings may be called by the President at his discretion, and shall be called by the President or Secretary when requested by two members; seasonable written notice of all meetings to be given to the members.
- ART. 10. Four members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Any number more than one may adjourn a meeting. Absent members to be notified of the adjournment.
- ART. 11. The Library in the Memorial Hall, including the Readingroom, shall be known as The Memorial Hall Library.
- ART. 12. No book, pamphlet, work of art, or other object whatsoever, offered by any person to the Library, Reading-room, or Memorial Hall, shall be accepted and placed therein, except by express vote of the Board, unless by direction of the Town; and immediate notice of acceptance shall be given to the donor, with a suitable acknowledgment.
- ART. 13. All books, pamphlets, and articles in the Library, Reading-room, or Memorial Room, may be exchanged at the discretion of the Trustees: provided, however, that no such exchange shall be made except with the consent of the donor, or his or her oldest heir-at-law.

Section II—LIBRARY

ARTICLE 1. The Memorial Hall Library and Reading-room shall be free to all residents in Andover over fourteen years of age, who shall sign an agreement to observe the rules and regulations adopted from time to time by the Trustees (giving satisfactory guarantee when requested), and who shall at all times comply with said rules and regulations.

The following guarantees may be required by the Librarian at his discretion:

First. Any resident, of the age of twenty one years or upwards, may deposit with the Librarian a sum of money equal to the value of the book borrowed, or the value of the set, if it be one of a set. A ticket in evidence of this deposit shall be given to the borrower, a copy of which shall be kept by the Librarian. On the return of the book borrowed, with the ticket, and the payment of any fines or damages for negligence or injury, the deposit shall be restored to the depositor. In case such book is not returned, and such fines and damages paid, the deposit shall be forfeited to the Trustees. Or,

Secondly. Any resident, of the age of fourteen years or upwards, may file with the Librarian a guarantee of some responsible person, known to the Librarian, agreeing to be answerable for all books borrowed by him, and for the payment of all fines and damages incurred by him. Such guarantee shall be valid for the time mentioned therein, but may be revoked by the signer at any time, at his pleasure, by a notice in writing to the Librarian, in which case his liability shall cease, except as to books previously taken and fines and damages previously incurred.

- ART. 2. Persons residing temporarily in Andover may, at the discretion of the Library Committee, be permitted to use the Library and Reading-room, on such terms as the Trustees may prescribe.
- ART. 3. Strangers visiting the town may use the books and periodicals in the Reading-room, agreeably to the regulations, for the space of one week, upon the introduction in writing of any Trustee. The person thus introducing a stranger shall be responsible for his compliance with the rules of the Library, and shall be accountable for any injuries committed by him.
- ART. 4. Young persons under fourteen years of age may be admitted to read in the Reading-room, upon the request of some person known to the Librarian (who shall engage to be responsible for their good conduct). at such times and in such numbers as may, in the judgment of the Liberian, not be inconvenient to other visitors; but no such person shall be permitted to loiter in the Reading-room, or in any part of the building, when not engaged in reading.
- ART. 5. All persons visiting the Memorial Hall shall demean themselves quietly and be inoffensive in condition and conduct; no person shall lunch, or smoke, or spit on the floor, in any part of the building and no disturbing conversation will be permitted in the Library or Reading-room.

- ART. 7. The Library and Reading-room shall be open every week-day throughout the year (except holidays), from eight and a half, A. M., to twelve o'clock, and from three to five and a half, and from seven to nine o'clock, P. M.
- ART. 8. No person, except the Librarian or a Trustee, shall enter any of the alcoves, or take any book from its place on the shelves, unless by special permission.
- ART. 9. No book or pamphlet belonging to the Library or Reading-room, shall be taken away, except by the leave of the Librarian, expressed in the prescribed mode of registration.
- ART. 10. Every person entitled to borrow books from the Library shall receive from the Librarian a card bearing the name of the borrower and setting forth his right to the use of the Library. The card shall have on the back ruled spaces in which the Librarian will stamp the dates of the delivery and return of books borrowed. This card must always be presented on taking out any book for home use, and also upon the return of any book. The person to whom the card belongs will be held responsible for any book drawn by means of his card. The card, if lost, cannot be replaced until after seven days' notice of the loss has been given at the Library.
- ART. 11. Application for books is to be made on printed slips, which will be furnished by the Librarian. The applicant will write on these slips the shelf-numbers of the books desired, together with the name of the borrower copied from his card; and both the card and slip will then be handed to the Librarian.
- ART. 12. No person shall be allowed to have more than one volume from the Library at one time. Books designated as books of illustration may, however, be taken with the volumes they are designed to illustrate.
- ART. 13. No book taken for home use shall be changed the same day on which it is taken.
- ART. 11. No book shall be taken a second time for home use by the same person, or by any one of the same household, until after a full Library day from the time of his returning it. New books, and books in great demand, shall not be re-taken by the same person until after three days from the date of their return, when the Library Committee may so direct.
- ART. 15. Any book borrowed from the Library may be kept out two weeks, unless a shorter time is named on the cover. When a book is new or in great demand, the time may be limited to one week, or less than one week, at the discretion of the Library Committee. Any borrower who retains a book beyond the allowed time, shall pay a fine of two cents for every day's delay.
- ART. 16. Any volume retained two weeks beyond the specified time, shall be sent for by the Librarian, and the expense incurred in obtained it shall be paid by the borrower. If not returned within one week after being sent for by the Librarian, the book shall be considered as lost.

- ART. 17. Books returned must be delivered to the Librarian or his assistant.
- ART. 18. The Library Committee may order a new book to be retained in the Library for four weeks after its reception.
- ART. 19. No periodical or pamphlet shall be borrowed from the Library until bound and placed upon the shelves, except when the Library has a duplicate of the same; in which case only one copy shall be allowed to be borrowed unbound.
- ART. 20. No newspaper, bound or unbound, shall be removed from the Library or Reading-room, except by special permission of the Library Committee.
- ART. 21. Books unsuited for general circulation, books difficult to be replaced by reason of their rarity or value, and books of reference, shall not be taken from the Library, except by special permission of the Library Committee.
- ART. 22. Persons entitled to the privileges of the Library may receive books for consultation in the Reading-room during Library hours, upon making a written application on a printed slip to be furnished by the Librarian. Any person neglecting to return to the Librarian a book thus temporarily consulted, shall pay a fine of five cents.
- ART. 23. All books shall be returned to the Library at such time, annually, as the Library Committee may direct, and shall remain in the Library so long as may be necessary for the annual examination. Any person neglecting to return a book at this time, shall pay a fine of fifty cents. Seasonable notice of the time is to be given by the Librarian.
- ART. 24. Borrowers of books must give notice to the Librarian of any change in their place of residence.
- ART. 25. All injuries to books, beyond reasonable wear, shall be made good, to the satisfaction of the Library Committee, by the borrower. If any book be lost or materially damaged, the borrower shall pay for the same at the appraisement of the Committee. If the volume lost or injured forms part of a set, he may be required to replace the whole set; and shall then be entitled to receive the damaged set as his own property. Notice should be given to the Librarian of any serious defacement or injury which a borrower may find in any book used by him.
- ART. 26. Any person injuring or mutilating any book, newspaper, or other article, belonging to the Library, or to any room in Memorial Hall, will be denied admission to the building, unless satisfactory reparation be made; and will also be liable to immediate prosecution for such offence.
- NOTE.—The following Act was passed by the Legislature of Massachusetts February 26, 1872:—An Act for the Preservation of Books and other Property belonging to Public Libraries.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows :-

Whoever willfully and maliciously or wantonly and without cause writes upon, injures, defaces, tears or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving or statue, belonging to any law, town, city, or other public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the jail not exceeding six months, for every such offence.

Approved Feb. 26, 1872.

ART. 27. A printed copy of the established rules and regulations shall be given to every person, or head of a family using the Library.

ART. 28. A printed Catalogue of the books belonging to the Library shall, from time to time, be provided by the Trustees, copies of which shall be for sale at the Librarian's desk.

Section III—LIBRARIAN

- ARTICLE 1. A Librarian shall be elected by the Trustees, who shall be removable at their pleasure. His salary shall be fixed by the Board. He shall give bonds to the town of Andover, in such sum and with such sureties as may be approved by the Board, for the faithful performance of the duties of his office; for the proper care and preservation of the Library: and to account for all property of the town in charge of this Board which may be placed in his hands. He shall perform all the duties assigned to him, agreeably to the regulations and directions of the Board and the Library Committee.
- ART. 2. The Librarian, under the supervision of the Library Committee, shall have the charge and control of the Library, and of the other apartments in the Memorial Hall; he shall see that the books, pamphlets, papers, furniture, and other articles, are arranged according to the directions of the Library Committee, and kept in good order. He shall keep the rooms open, and in proper condition for use, during the hours specified by the Board, and during those hours shall be present, in person or by an assistant approved by the Committee; he shall maintain order in the rooms, and see that all the regulations of the Board are complied with.
- ART. 3. He may appoint an Assistant, to be approved by the Library Committee, to assist him in the performance of his duties, and to act for him in case of his illness or absence, and who in such case shall have the powers of the Librarian. The Librarian shall be responsible for the conduct of his Assistant. The compensation of the Assistant shall be paid by the Librarian, and no allowance shall be made to the Librarian for such compensation, or for extra services, unless by vote of the Board upon each special claim.
- ART. 4. The Librarian shall enter in a record, to be called the Accession Catalogue, the title and author's name of every book and pamphlet added to the Library, the date of its reception, its cost, if purchased, the name of its donor, if it be a gift, and any other facts relating to it which the Board may direct. And no book shall be put in use until so recorded.
- ART. 5. He shall keep an Alphabetical Catalogue of all volumes and pamphlets belonging to the Library, in which shall be noted the title and author of every work, and the number of volumes, with its number on the Accession Catalogue, and its place in the Library.
- ART. 6. He shall acknowledge all gifts to the Library, Reading-room, or Memorial Hall, as soon as they shall have been reported to the Board and accepted, first procuring the signature of the President to each acknowledgment.

- ART. 7. He shall cause a book plate to be securely fastened in each volume belonging to the Library, noting on it the date of the book's reception, the name of the donor, if it be a gift, the number of the shelf on which it is kept, the book-number, and the number it bears on the Accession Catalogue. He shall also cause all volumes, pamphlets, and manuscripts belonging to the Library or Reading-room to be stamped with the words, Memorial Hall Library, Andover.
- ART. 8. He shall have every volume, before it is delivered from the Library, neatly covered with suitable paper; the number of the shelf on which it is kept, and the book-number, written on the back; and a printed copy of such rules as the Trustees may direct attached to the cover, together with a statement of the time for which the book is allowed to be kept out. It shall also be his duty to cover and label anew all books whose covers or labels may have become worn or defaced.
- ART. 9. He shall keep a register of all persons entering their names for the purpose of borrowing books, with the Library number and the residence of each individual inserted against the name.
- ART. 10. He shall, on application in the prescribed mode by any person entitled to take books from the Library, deliver to him such book as he may wish, keeping a record of its delivery in the manner directed by the Board. On the return of the book he shall cancel the charge. But if the book has been kept beyond the allowed time, he shall impose the proper fine; and if it has been injured, he shall report the injury to the Library Committee.
- ART. 11. He shall furnish to any person entitled to the privileges of the Library, such books as he may desire to use in the Reading-room, during Library hours, providing him first with a printed slip on which to make written application for the same; this application to be preserved by the Librarian, and cancelled on the return of the book.
- ART. 12. The Librarian may withhold any book, particularly in the case of minors, when there is good and sufficient reason.
- ART. 13. He shall retain for two days after its return any book which may have been inquired for, provided a written request for its retention has been presented by the person desiring the book.
- ART. 14. He shall keep a record of all books asked for which are not in the Library, with the names of the persons asking for them, and exhibit the same to the Library Committee whenever it shall be called for.
- ART. 15. When any person shall have detained a book beyond the prescribed time, it shall be the duty of the Librarian, on the day following that on which the book should have been returned, to send by mail to such person a notice, reminding him that the book is due at the Library, and that he is incurring a fine of two cents for every day of detention.
- ART. 16. When any book shall have been detained two weeks beyond the allowed time, the Librarian shall send for it, and shall cause it to be returned at the expense of the borrower.

- ART. 17. The Librarian shall collect all fines incurred by neglect to return any book within the prescribed time, and all damages for the loss or injury of books, and shall account for, and pay over the same to the Treasurer of the Board once in three months.
- ART. 18. He shall withhold the use of the Library from any persons owing fines or forfeitures; and may exclude any person from the building who shall injure any of the books, periodicals, furniture, or other property, or whose condition or conduct shall not be in conformity with the regulations of the Board; and he shall make immediate report of all such cases to the Library Committee.
- ART. 19. He shall, once in the year, have all the books taken from the shelves and carefully dusted, and the shelves thoroughly cleaned.
- ART. 20. He shall make a thorough examination of the Library once a year, and oftener if requested by the Library Committee. He shall also make report to the Board, at such times as they may require, of the condition and increase of the Library, and of any other matters relating to the Library and the Memorial Hall about which they may desire to be informed.
- ART. 21. Any person dissatisfied with the decision of the Librarian in any case, may refer the matter to the Library Committee.

OF AMENDMENTS.

These regulations may be amended at any regular meeting of the Trustees, provided the amendment shall have been proposed at the next preceding regular meeting, and entered on the records, and information given by the Secretary to each member of the Board of the proposed change, in the words of the record.
